29 PLEASE TAKE NOTE that Debtor Anthony G. Thomas hereby appeals from:

- 30 1. Judge Spraker's Sales Procedures Order - ECF/DE 510 filed on 7-12-2019 that 31 is void on its' face due to failure to comply with Reno BK Court Local Rule 9021.
32 A copy of the Order that is Void on its' face is attached hereto as Exhibit A.
- 33 2. Judge Spraker's Order re: Pending Motion and Debtor's Request for Stay of 34 Proceedings filed as DE 512 on 7-12-2019, attached hereto as Exhibit B.
- 35 3. Judge Spraker's Ruling from the Bench of 6-4-2019 wherein he refuses to rule 36 on Debtor's Motion for Judicial Notice of Law and Facts in Opposition to the 37 Trustee's Motion to sell the Thomas Emerald without compliance with the U.S.
38 Bankruptcy Code and Rules governing Notices required to be given prior to any 39 proposed use or sale of Estate property pursuant to BK Code Section 363(b) and 40 Rules 6004 and 2002. The Judge's refusal to rule on Debtor's Motion for 41 Judicial Notice is evidenced by the 40 page transcript of the hearing filed as 42 ECF/Docket Entry 500 filed on 7-3-2019 that is incorporated herein by reference 43 and attached hereto as Exhibit C.
- 44 4. Debtor needs a stay of proceedings in light of his Motion for Judicial Notice (DE
45 508 filed on 7-8-2019) in Support of his Rule 60(b)(4) Motion to Vacate (DE 509 46 filed on 7-8-2019) Judge Beesley's Void 8-22-2014 Conversion Order that is to 47 be heard before Judge Spraker on 9-13-2019. If the underlying Conversion

Order is Void, then so is the 7-19-2019 attempted sale of the Thomas Emerald.

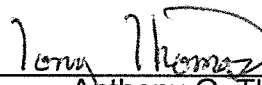

5. Debtor further requests an Emergency Ex Parte stay of proceedings from this Court in light of the likelihood that Judge Spraker will deny his request for a stay that Debtor will nonetheless file in the BK Court prior to the 7-19-2019 sale date and in light of Judge Spraker's refusal to take Judicial Notice that the purported sale of the Thomas Emerald is Void on its' face. Irreparable harm will occur to Debtor if the illegal sale proceeds in violation of the rule of law. The current highest bidder is Debtor Anthony Thomas who outbid the previous highest bidder who turned out to be Ken Tersini, the principal of Kenmark Ventures LLC and none other than the notorious human trafficker¹ and enslaver and exploiter of foreign labor Ken Tersini, and the one that procured the fraudulent judgment with the collusion of the Debtor's disbarred attorney Michael Morrissey in the underlying Judgment of the Santa Clara Superior Court that is the issue that forced Debtor into Bankruptcy Court in the first place. Debtor also needs a stay so he can file his Motion to Vacate the $5 million Santa Clara County Superior Court Judgment that was procured by Fraud Upon the Court.

SALE PROCEDURES ORDER

On June 4, 2019, the court conducted a status and scheduling conference regarding the chapter 7 trustee's efforts to sell the "Thomas Emerald," consisting of a 21,000 carat emerald. As a result of that hearing, the court scheduled a final evidentiary hearing on the trustee's Motion for Order Confirming Sale by Auction; Request for Approval of Payment of Commission to Stremmel Auctions (ECF No. 430) on July 19, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. in the Clifton Young Federal Building, 300 Booth Street, Bankruptcy Courtroom, Fifth Floor, Reno, Nevada. The court also requested that trustee's counsel draft an order setting out the procedures for the sale should qualified, competing bids be received. On July 9, 2019, counsel for the trustee lodged a proposed Sales Procedure Order, to which Anthony Thomas objected. Mr. Thomas's objections were included with the proposed order. By a separate Order (1) Regarding Pending Motions and Debtor's Request for Stay of Proceedings, and (2) Overruling Debtor's Objections to the Trustee's Bid Procedures Order, the court has considered and overruled Mr. Thomas's objections to the proposed order for the reasons stated, and incorporated herein. Nonetheless, the court enters its own order to note the procedural history of this order, but will incorporate

1 the substance of the proposed order. Therefore, to participate in the auction of the Thomas
2 Emerald,

3 IT IS ORDERED THAT any interested purchaser must provide evidence of ability to 4 bid cash or cash equivalent at the hearing. The opening bid for the Thomas Emerald is 5 $21,500. Incremental overbidding will be at $2,500 per bid. A Buyer's premium of 10% over 6 the successful bid price will be charged.

7 IT IS SO ORDERED.

ORDER (1) REGARDING PENDING MOTIONS AND DEBTOR'S REQUEST FOR STAY OF PROCEEDINGS, AND
(2) OVERRULING DEBTOR'S OBJECTIONS TO THE TRUSTEE'S
BID PROCEDURES ORDER

On June 4, 2019, the court held a status conference regarding the chapter 7 trustee's (Trustee) motion to sell certain personal property of the debtors, namely the emerald referred to as the Thomas Emerald (ECF No. 430) (Sale Motion). For the reasons stated on the record at that hearing, the court scheduled a final evidentiary hearing regarding the Sale Motion for July 19, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. The court also requested that counsel for the chapter 7 trustee prepare an order establishing the bid procedures applicable for the auction.

On July 8, 2019, debtor Anthony Thomas (Thomas) filed two motions, among other documents. The first is his Notice of Motion and Motion for Judicial Notice of Law & Facts ISO Rule 60(b)(4) Motion to Vacate Void 8-22-2014 Conversion Order (ECF No. 508) (Judicial Notice Motion). The hearing on the Judicial Notice Motion was set at Mr. Thomas's request for September 13, 2019. The second motion recently filed by Mr. Thomas is captioned, Notice of Rule 60(b)(4) Motion & Motion to Vacate Order Void on Its Face in Violation of U.S. Constitutional Due Process Rights; Request for Stay (ECF No. 509) (Rule 60(b) Motion,

1 and together with the Judicial Notice Motion, the Motions). Mr. Thomas has requested that 2 this motion be set to be heard in October.

3 On July 11, 2019, the trustee lodged his Proposed Sale Procedures Order. The lodged
4 order actually references an attachment which is the proposed order indicating that Mr. Thomas
5 has disapproved the form of the order, and including a statement of objection.¹ Mr. Thomas 6 contends that the proposed order is late, is void because trustee's counsel failed to submit the 7 proposed order to him prior to filing it and serving it on the creditor matrix. He further argues
8 that as a result, the court's prior order dated June 21, 2019 is also void. The court did not enter 9 an order on June 21, 2019. The trustee filed his Notice of Continued Hearing on Motion for 10 Order Confirming Sale by Auction; Request for Approval of Payment of Commission to 11 Stremmel Auctions (ECF No. 498). The court finds no merit in Mr. Thomas's objection to the 12 proposed order. As the lodged order includes an objection to the form of the order, Mr.
13 Thomas has received notice of the proposed order. Because no other party other than Kenmark
14 Ventures, LLC appeared at the status hearing, and no other party has objected to the relief 15 sought, no additional notice or signatures were required. Moreover, Mr. Thomas does not have 16 standing to object on behalf of other parties such as Kenmark Venture. In accordance with 17 Local Rule 9021 governing entry of orders, the court overrules Mr. Thomas's objections and 18 shall enter the proposed order lodged by trustee's counsel.

19 The court has briefly reviewed the Motions. The request for judicial notice asks the 20 court to consider its prior actions and matters that occurred during the August 22, 2014 hearing.
21 Mr. Thomas has attached a transcript of that hearing. The court has reviewed the Judicial 22 Notice Motion and notes that the facts referenced therein do not appear to be in dispute, or are 23 otherwise inappropriate for judicial notice. Accordingly, the court will not require a separate
25
26

27 ¹ Mr. Thomas also included the court's law clerk in an email regarding the objection to the 28 proposed order. The debtors are instructed to not do so in the future. Rather, the process for disapproving the form of an order is set forth in Local Rule 9021(b)(2).

1 hearing on the Judicial Notice Motion, and instead will set both Motions for hearing on 2 September 13, 2019, thus satisfying the requirements of Fed. R. Evid. 201(e).²

3 The Rule 60(b) Motion requests that the court vacate its prior order converting this case
4 from chapter 11 to chapter 7 (ECF No. 190) (Conversion Order). Mr. Thomas also includes a
5 request to stay all proceedings in this case pending resolution of the Motions. At Mr. Thomas's 6 request, this motion has been set for hearing on September 13, 2019, well after the July 19, 7 2019 sale of the Thomas Emerald. Thomas has not explained why either motion may not be 8 heard on an earlier date. He has not taken any action to do so, or requested that the court
9 consider a stay prior to the July 19, 2019 hearing on the sale of the Thomas Emerald.
10 Furthermore, the court is concerned by Thomas's request that all proceedings in this case be 11 stayed pending resolution of the Motions, especially since he has scheduled consideration of 12 those motions well after the hearing date for the sale itself. The filing of the Rule 60(b) Motion 13 does not stay the proceedings of the court. To the extent that Mr. Thomas intends to ask the 14 court to stay the sale scheduled for July 19, 2019, it is incumbent upon him to take such actions
15 before the sale occurs. He has not done so to date; placing a request for relief within another 16 motion (to void the order of conversion) and scheduling it months after the sale is not 17 sufficient. Any such request is not properly before the court at this time. Accordingly, as there
18 is no request currently before this court to stay the sale scheduled for July 19, 2019, the court
19 will consider the Rule 60(b) Motion, and the request for stay, on the date requested by debtor 20 absent further action by the debtor to appropriately bring such matter before the court.

21 For these reasons,
22
23

24
25 ² The court also notes that in the Rule 60(b) Motion, Thomas contends that the undersigned 26 "has refused to rule on Debtor's Motion for Judicial Notice with regards to the sale of the Thomas 27 Emerald." ECF No. 509, p. 2:4-6. This is simply untrue as the court has stated that it will consider and 28 rule on the request at the time of the substantive hearing. See Transcript of June 4, 2019 Hearing, ECF
No. 500, p. 18:20-19:3 ("Mr. Thomas: Will you rule on our judicial notice motion? Court: I will consider all matters. I'm likely to not rule on anything prior to. Mr. Thomas: But you will take judicial notice of the facts and laws that we present you. Court: Sir, I will allow – I – I've seen that. I have not gone through it in any great length, but the – I will hear your position, and then I will decide how to proceed.").

1 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the court will hear both the Notice of Motion and 2 Motion for Judicial Notice of Law & Facts ISO Rule 60(b)(4) Motion to Vacate Void 8-22-3 2014 Conversion Order (ECF No. 508) and the Notice of Rule 60(b)(4) Motion & Motion to 4 Vacate Order Void on Its Face in Violation of U.S. Constitutional Due Process Rights; Request 5 for Stay (ECF No. 509) on September 13, 2019 at 9:30 a.m.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Mr. Thomas's objections to the form of the trustee's 7 Proposed Sale Procedures Order are overruled, and the court shall enter the proposed order.

8 IT IS SO ORDERED.

1 (Proceedings commence at 2:02 p.m.)

2 THE COURT: (Via video conference) Good morning, 3 Madam -- or good afternoon, Madam Clerk. This is 4 Judge Spraker. Is everyone ready to appear?

5 THE CLERK: Good afternoon, Judge. Yes, everyone is 6 present and ready for you.

7 THE COURT: All right. If you will call the case,
8 then, please.

9 THE CLERK: Yes, sir. The matter that we have on 10 today's calendar is Case Number 14-50333. It's the case of 11 Anthony and Wendi Thomas. In regards to Docket Number 430, 12 it's a status and scheduling conference in regards to the 13 motion to sell.

14 THE COURT: Thank you. Please be seated. All right.

15 As the court clerk just mentioned, we are on record 16 in Thomas regarding a status and scheduling conference set in 17 this matter by the Court. I can only see the podium primarily, 18 so let's start with people approaching the podium and entering 19 their appearance.

20 Mr. Hartman, if you'd lead us off.

21 MR. HARTMAN: Good afternoon, Your Honor.
22 Jeff Hartman, on behalf of trustee Jeri Coppa-Knudson.

23 MS. COPPA-KNUDSON: Jeri Coppa-Knudson, trustee.

24 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Coppa-Knudson.

25 All right. Anyone else in the courtroom?

1 MR. HARTMAN: Nobody else in the courtroom,
2 Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 MR. HARTMAN: I think they're --

5 THE COURT: Mr. Hartman --

6 MR. HARTMAN: I think they're telephone --

7 THE COURT: Go ahead.

8 MR. HARTMAN: -- telephone appearances, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Thank you. Then let's take those on the 10 telephone.

11 MR. THOMAS: (Telephonically) Your Honor, this is 12 Anthony Thomas.

13 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Thomas. Thank you.
14 Somebody else was also on the line?

15 MR. SILVER: (Telephonically) Good afternoon,
16 Your Honor. Yes, Your Honor. Good afternoon. Wayne Silver, 17 appearing for Kenmark Ventures, LLC.

18 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Silver.

19 Okay. Thank you. Obviously, I am the judge that's 20 been appointed after Judge Beesley recused himself. I am a 21 visiting judge from the District of Alaska. I have been 22 helping out in the District of Nevada for, jeez, it's about to 23 be six years here soon. So unfortunately, I do the initial 24 matters by video, if possible, and then try to take whatever 25 matters that may be necessary -- I will be down in Reno.

1 I thought it was necessary to set this matter on and 2 have this initial discussion to see where the parties believe 3 the matter was left after the last hearing in which 4 Judge Beesley recused himself. There being no real activity on 5 the docket before then, I thought it was most simple just to go 6 ahead and set this matter for a hearing.

7 Mr. Hartman, as representative of the movant in the 8 motion to sell, I'll let you have the first crack. But let me 9 tell you what I've seen -- and all the parties, for that 10 matter -- from what I've seen from my review of the docket.

11 Primarily, this is -- the relief requested is 12 approval of a motion of sale of the emerald that is at issue.
13 The sale is a result of an auction that was not subject to any 14 prior motion prior to the auction, and so, in my view, it comes 15 to us as -- really as a sale to a private party, but with the 16 auction behind it to support it.

17 I know that Mr. Thomas has challenged or made several 18 challenges. Primarily -- or the first was to challenge the 19 validity of the notice; also challenges the approval of the 20 sale; and seems to have challenged the payment of some expenses 21 to the auctioneer. So I want to know what else is being 22 challenged or subject to the Court's consideration, where we 23 are, and where we go from here. So, Mr. Hartman, with that 24 introduction --

25 MR. HARTMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: -- take it away.

2 MR. HARTMAN: I'll -- I guess I'll begin by the 3 process. The trustee has possession of the emerald. She 4 recovered possession early on in the case. She went to Florida
5 to retrieve it. And --

6 THE COURT: And, Mr. Hartman, I apologize. I should 7 have said this. I've read as much as I could, so I know the 8 history and the back story. We can get into what's evidence 9 and what isn't at a later date, but really I just want to try
10 to get a handle as to where things are, whether this matter
11 should be deemed submitted, or whether we need to schedule a 12 further evidentiary matter, and if so, on what issues or all 13 issues.

14 MR. HARTMAN: Well --

15 THE COURT: So I'm going to ask all parties to ignore
16 the history and the context at the moment. I just want -- you 17 know, for lack of better -- just figure out the scheduling and 18 the status, actually. I should have started with that.

19 MR. HARTMAN: Certainly, Your Honor. The -- 20 Mr. Thomas has questioned the procedure leading up to the 21 hearing that was held at which Judge Beesley recused himself.
22 And the issue, as I understand it, by Mr. Thomas is that the 23 option wasn't properly noticed. The procedure that was 24 followed was that the auction was conducted but the sale had to 25 actually be confirmed by the Court, and anybody that wanted to

1 appear and overbid would be able to do so, provided that they 2 had legitimate funds.

3 At the hearing on the motion to approve the sale,
4 Judge Beesley actually conducted the hearing and recused
5 himself at the end. He never ruled on -- he never said, I'm 6 going to enter an order approving the sale. So we have a 7 motion that's in limbo and it can be reset at any time; or if 8 the Court ultimately determines the trustee needs to re-notice 9 the sale or engage in a different process, we can do that.

10 THE COURT: Okay. So where do you believe the 11 evidentiary matters were left? There was some -- there was 12 testimony -- limited testimony from Mr. Thomas. There was more 13 testimony from Mr. Stremmel. What does the trustee want to do,
14 other than sell the emerald? What do you want to do 15 procedurally at this point?

16 MR. HARTMAN: Well, in my ideal situation,
17 Your Honor, I would like Mr. Thomas to be directed to supply 18 any information he has to the trustee with respect to potential 19 purchasers of the emerald who might be willing to pay more, and 20 we'll obviously notice them and invite them to appear at the 21 hearing, and the Court conduct an auction, basically, and the 22 highest bidder will prevail. I --

23 THE COURT: I --

24 MR. HARTMAN: I believe the record is clear that 25 notice of the hearing on the sale was proper. Actually it was

1 more than proper under the rules and the time required. So
2 from that standpoint, I think the trustee's on solid ground.
3 And eventually, you know, she's charged with liquidating the 4 assets. She continuously has to report to the United States
5 Trustee on the status of this case, and that's getting to be a 6 challenge.

7 But it's at issue, and we can reset a hearing and 8 conduct a hearing, and Mr. Thomas can appear and object to 9 Your Honor, and you can rule on the issues at that point in 10 time.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Thomas, let's hear from you.
12 What do you think should be the next step in this process?

13 MR. THOMAS: Your Honor, I think that the sale should 14 be void on its face because they didn't follow Rule 363(b) or 15 Rule 6004 and 2002. They didn't notice all creditors or myself 16 21 days prior to the sale.

17 And I believe that the sale was a collusive sale. It 18 was -- the only people that were notified of the sale was 19 Ken Trazini (phonetic) and Mr. Silver and the auctioneer put 20 them down as emerald experts. So I believe that the sale was 21 collusive and they should be void. And I think that a new 22 auctioneer should be picked.

23 You know, there was Overstock.com, and I think that,
24 you know, they're a more appropriate auctioneer for this type
25 of emerald, or Sotheby's, or any of the big auctioneer firms

1 for one of the single largest emeralds in the world.

2 And I think the whole process has been undermined and 3 not followed the rules. There was no reason for them not to 4 notify me or the creditors 21 days prior to the sale. And, you 5 know, there are rules in the Bankruptcy Court for a reason, and 6 they didn't follow the rules. So I believe that the sale
7 should be void, and I think that they should start from the 8 beginning and pick an auctioneer that's not a local auctioneer 9 that they know, and pick a good public auctioneer that can get 10 the most money for the emerald.

11 There's also some very -- some underlying issues, 12 Your Honor, that I've been trying to get filed in the 13 Santa Clara Bankruptcy Court if -- I was forced into 14 Bankruptcy Court by a fraudulent settlement. And I'm trying to 15 get these papers filed in Santa Clara, but every week I have to 16 deal with another issue. And, you know, I -- hopefully I'll be 17 able to get those filed within the next two weeks.

18 But the whole reason I'm in bankruptcy in the first 19 place is because my attorney was told by the State Bar the day
20 before the settlement that he wasn't allowed to try my case.
21 They wrote him a letter and said that he was -- wasn't allowed 22 to go forward. And he settled my case with Kenmark, and they 23 told me that I had no liability. And a year and a half later, 24 they came after me for a payment for $500,000, and my attorney
25 that colluded with Trazini's attorney, told me I had -- you

1 know, the only thing I could do was file for bankruptcy, which 2 I have now found is not an option. And I believe that the 3 whole reason that I was forced into bankruptcy is void.

4 And I was also illegally converted from Chapter 7 to 5 11, because Judge Beesley took away my counsel, and I was 6 represented and so was my LLC, AT Emerald, which can't appear 7 in front of a court without representation. And that's when 8 the conversion happened. And I asked Judge Beesley for a 9 two-week continuance so that I could get counsel, and I was 10 denied.

11 So my -- on the grounds of 60(b), I believe that my 12 constitutional rights were taken away, and the trustee should 13 have never had the right to sell the emerald in the first 14 place. So on those issues there, that's where I stand.

15 And then I also filed in my brief that the John Beach 16 case that I won on the appeal was dismissed a year later has 17 now been brought back to life without Judge -- an order from 18 Judge Beesley or yourself. Judge Beesley recused himself, and 19 you just got into the case and are listening to us for the 20 first time, but it was put on the docket again, and it's 21 Docket 77, on 5/29.

22 This case has been reopened after it was already 23 closed and dismissed. So I don't know how that happened
24 without approval from you, Your Honor, or Judge Beesley.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. We are here only on

1 the status of scheduling for the motion to sell. I appreciate 2 your comments on the other matters, but they'll proceed however 3 they proceed. We are simply trying to figure out what the next
4 step is for the motion to sell at the moment. So that gives me
5 an overview of the case, but we're going to stick to the motion 6 to sell.

7 So, Mr. Silver, your comments.

8 MR. SILVER: Thank you, Your Honor. Wayne Silver, 9 appearing telephonically.

10 Your Honor, I agree with Mr. Hartman. I think that, 11 to the extent that there's any issues regarding notice, any 12 possibility that there might be somebody out there willing to 13 bid more, it should be explored. And so I'm not at all adverse 14 to having the sale re-noticed, to giving notice to the world, 15 if you will. Mr. Thomas can supply any information he wants to 16 regarding any potentially-interested buyer. And as long as 17 they come in with hard dollars and not, you know, funny money, 18 I'm perfectly aligned with the trustee, because I think we're 19 both looking to accomplish the same goal, which is to maximize 20 the value of the emerald.

21 THE COURT: That's an interesting point, Mr. Silver.

22 Mr. Hartman, what is -- in reviewing the transcript
23 and the other matters, the concept of an overbid has been out 24 there and there's usually some kind of reference to, you know, 25 hard money or whatever. What does that mean in this case?

1 What do you -- if we set this for another hearing, which is 2 essentially approval of -- your continuation of the hearing to 3 approve the sale subject to overbids, presumably noticing out 4 that anybody who wants to overbid may do so, essentially having 5 another auction at the commencement of the next hearing, what 6 are the requirements for that overbid?

7 MR. HARTMAN: Well, Your Honor, our practice normally
8 is to ask the Court to set whatever the incremental overbid 9 numbers are. But, you know, it's -- usually, on a sale of 10 this, you know, size, it would be increments of 2,500 or 11 $5,000. And --

12 MS. COPPA-KNUDSON: If --

13 MR. HARTMAN: -- the trustee --

14 MS. COPPA-KNUDSON: I'm sorry.

15 MR. HARTMAN: The trustee would like to address the 16 Court --

17 MS. COPPA-KNUDSON: Yeah.

18 MR. HARTMAN: -- Your Honor.

19 MS. COPPA-KNUDSON: I --

20 THE COURT: Go ahead, ma'am.

21 MS. COPPA-KNUDSON: I spoke to the auctioneer this 22 morning, and he indicated that our last high bidder has 23 withdrawn his offer. So we do not even have that offer at -- 24 that is my understanding at this moment. So that was what he 25 told me this morning.

1 So I have no idea -- we can go back to them and see 2 if that last offer that they made is still viable, but his 3 indication to me this morning was that that offer has been 4 withdrawn.

5 THE COURT: So the offer from Jennifer Judoin
6 (phonetic) at twenty-one five hundred or twenty-five -- 7 whatever it was -- has been withdrawn?

8 MS. COPPA-KNUDSON: That's my understanding,
9 Your Honor.

10 MR. HARTMAN: Your Honor, this is Jeff Hartman, for 11 the record. I think Mr. Silver can address that, because that 12 claim -- or that purchase position was assigned to Mr. Silver's 13 client.

14 MR. SILVER: Wayne Silver, telephonically. That's 15 correct, Your Honor. The offer was assigned to my client, and 16 to my knowledge, it has not been withdrawn.

17 MS. COPPA-KNUDSON: It has not?

18 MR. SILVER: That's -- that -- that's -- as far as I
19 know, it has not been withdrawn. I haven't spoken to anyone 20 from Stremmel recently. It's possible that there was a 21 conversation I'm not aware of. But as far as I know, that 22 offer is still good.

23 MS. COPPA-KNUDSON: Well, and I would have to verify 24 that because as of this morning, Steve Stremmel thought that 25 offer had been withdrawn. Maybe he is wrong.

1 MR. SILVER: Okay. We can certainly clear --

2 MR. THOMAS: Your --

3 MR. SILVER: -- that up quickly, but as far as I 4 know, it's good.

5 MR. THOMAS: Your Honor, I would like you to make a
6 ruling on the judicial notice motion that I filed and get a 7 ruling, and then we could start from scratch. Because I would 8 like to have a ruling on the evidence that was presented before 9 you and the judicial notice that I had asked the Court to take 10 judicial notice of.

11 THE COURT: Thank you. Well, what I am hearing is 12 that the trustee is not opposed to seeing if anyone else --
13 well, what I originally thought I heard was that the trustee's 14 not opposed to having another hearing which anyone could 15 overbid the amount of the current offer to Ms. Judoin, who was 16 assigned. There's some question whether that offer is still 17 outstanding. That's the first question that has to happen. If 18 there's no offer, there's no motion to sell and that -- restart 19 again. How we restart again would be probably the subject from 20 another status conference.

21 If that offer is still valid, I think that it is 22 worthwhile to see where that takes us and reset that as another 23 notice of essentially another auction for anybody wanting to 24 make a bid in the proper increment above the accepted offer on 25 the terms that the trustee, you know, proposes and the Court

1 would approve, meaning the increments of any subsequent bids
2 and the money that had to be put up or the means to establish 3 the money to qualify as an appropriate bid.

4 So, Mr. Hartman, the first question is do -- does the 5 trustee want about a week or so to figure out whether or not 6 that bid's out there?

7 MR. HARTMAN: Yes, Your Honor. We would certainly do 8 that.

9 THE COURT: Okay. So what I am looking at is trying 10 to be in Reno on Friday, July 19th. That would be the date --
11 I now have two matters I am presiding over out of Reno. Going 12 to set that aside for both matters. Presently, I don't think 13 the other matter has any heavily substantive things scheduled 14 for that day, so if we need to set aside the afternoon of that 15 day for this hearing, in whatever shape it ultimately comes to, 16 then, you know, I think that's fine.

17 I am not going to rule on the judicial notice motion.
18 I will say, however, that you can take as my operating 19 structure that if a notice goes out with more than 21 days 20 notifying people of a continued evidentiary hearing in which 21 bids certain to subject considerations and requirements will be 22 considered and cause, in effect, another auction, that would 23 strongly lead me to believe that any harm that was caused has 24 been remedied and either is moot or harmless at that point.

25 To the extent that anybody believes that that is

1 legally incorrect, we'll talk about that on the 19th. So we 2 have plenty of time between now and the 19th, even with -- 3 given a week to get -- allow the trustee to figure out the 4 exact lay of the land as to the pending offer. My thought is 5 that that afternoon of the 19th would be an evidentiary
6 hearing. There are a number of people that have provided
7 declarations. Mr. Stremmel actually was examined.

8 My intent is that if we go to another evidentiary
9 hearing, it will be evidentiary. We'll have the auction, 10 wherever that takes us. And then we will have evidence to 11 approve that, and to the extent that it is requested, to allow 12 the Court to address the good-faith nature of any ultimate 13 buyer.

14 That means there will be testimony and then there
15 will be argument. We will not have a running argument 16 throughout the testimony. So we're going to treat this as an 17 evidentiary matter, essentially a trial, and that is how it's 18 going to go.

19 So, Mr. Hartman, we can come back in a week and reset
20 deadlines, if you like, or if you believe that's not necessary 21 and you'll notice it out, then I do want sufficient time for 22 objections and a reply prior to the hearing.

23 MR. HARTMAN: Your Honor, thank you. What I was 24 thinking about is we can verify whether or not the offer is 25 still open. And what I -- one suggestion is that I would

16

1 simply file a notice; it's obviously not separate hearing, it's 2 just the notice that the offer remains pending. And then I can 3 notice up the hearing appropriately and the rules and the 4 opposition dates in the rules would apply. So we don't need a 5 briefing scheduled beyond what's in the rules.

6 THE COURT: Well, that -- and that -- that's fine. I 7 mean, a lot of ink has been spilled on this matter, and both 8 for and against.

9 First, any notice, however it goes, must include a 10 statement that bids in a certain amount will be considered. I 11 mean, the notice that goes out setting the hearing needs to 12 also provide the information regarding what has to happen at 13 that hearing to turn it into an action.

14 MR. HARTMAN: Oh, certainly, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So to the extent that you want to 16 get a auction procedures order set prior to that, that 17 certainly makes sense, because I want those locked down 18 quickly.

19 MR. HARTMAN: Well, then for -- that -- that's sort 20 of a separate process, I guess, and I could prepare a proposed 21 order and then circulate it to Mr. Thomas. He can either 22 approve it or disapprove it and then submit it to the Court, 23 and it would go out with the notice.

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 MR. HARTMAN: We can do it that way, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Yeah. That would be great.

2 MR. THOMAS: Your Honor, this is one of the single 3 largest emeralds. And I don't think that in between now and 4 July is enough time to promote this thing around the world to 5 get the most value for it. They haven't done anything to 6 promote this thing other than stick it on a website and the -- 7 and spend $200.

8 THE COURT: Great. You can make all of those --

9 MR. THOMAS: You're talking one of the single --

10 THE COURT: -- arguments -- sir, you can make all 11 those arguments at the hearing. You've made a lot of them 12 before. I've read the transcript. And we can address that at 13 the hearing.

14 I will say, though, that at the hearing, when it's 15 evidentiary, if someone -- if you have a declaration submitted 16 and that person is not present to be cross-examined, that 17 evidence will not come in. Okay? I can't tell what evidence 18 was accepted at the court or not accepted based upon the 19 declarations and how it evolved. But at the beginning, we will 20 go over who was present and whose declaration should be 21 admitted for direct testimony into evidence. And if that 22 person is not physically present in the courtroom or has 23 otherwise been allowed to testify by phone in advance, the 24 Court is not going to accept that evidence.

25 MR. THOMAS: Yes, Your Honor. And thank you for

1 saying that. The -- Your Honor, the reason that the witnesses
2 weren't presented is because I never thought the sale would go 3 through in the first place, because it was void, because they 4 never notified me or the creditors according to the rules under 5 2002 and 6004. There was not proper notice in the first place, 6 so --

7 THE COURT: Well, that --

8 MR. THOMAS: -- I didn't feel --

9 THE COURT: That is now resolved. All right? You 10 are on notice that all witnesses must be present in the 11 courtroom to provide testimony as a precondition to getting the 12 declaration admitted into evidence as direct testimony to be 13 followed by cross-examination. You are not to assume anything
14 until this Court orders. So we will have whatever is needed
15 during the afternoon of July 19th to consider and submit 16 this -- the sale motion. So one shot, one stop, all matters.

17 MR. THOMAS: Okay. And then -- and what --

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 MR. THOMAS: And, Your Honor -- and at that time will 20 you consider our judicial notice motion? Will you rule on our 21 judicial notice motion?

22 THE COURT: I will consider all matters. I'm likely 23 to not rule on anything prior to.

24 MR. THOMAS: But you will take judicial notice of the 25 facts and laws that we present you.

1 THE COURT: Sir, I will allow -- I -- I've seen that.
2 I have not gone through it in any great length, but the -- I
3 will hear your position, and then I will decide how to proceed.

4 MR. THOMAS: Okay. Thank you. Thank you,
5 Your Honor. I appreciate that.

6 THE COURT: But again, I will urge you to consider 7 getting competent bankruptcy counsel, because we will apply the 8 Rules of Evidence. And, you know, I am sensitive to hearsay 9 comments and matters beyond the scope. So we will deal with 10 the motion to sell at that time.

11 MR. THOMAS: And just so I'm clear on the record, 12 Your Honor, you will take judicial notice of our judicial 13 notice motion.

14 THE COURT: I will consider all matters involving the 15 motion to sell. I understand you filed that motion for 16 judicial notice in relationship to the motion to sell, so that 17 will be addressed. I'm not going to take judicial notice --

18 MR. THOMAS: Okay.

19 THE COURT: -- it -- it's on the docket. So we will 20 hear all matters relating to the motion to sell on July 19th.

21 And, Madam Clerk, I can't recall if you start at one 22 o'clock or 1:30 in the afternoon there.

23 THE CLERK: Your Honor, we can start whenever you 24 would like.

25 THE COURT: All right. I'd like to start at one

1 o'clock.

2 THE CLERK: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: On Friday, July --

4 MR. THOMAS: Your Honor, what day is the -- it's the 5 Friday?

6 THE COURT: Friday, July 19th.

7 MR. THOMAS: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Certainly.

9 All right. So, Mr. Hartman, to bring it back around, 10 do you think -- do you need another hearing prior to getting 11 out the notice or --

12 MR. HARTMAN: I don't believe so, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. And you -- then we'll have a 14 motion to set auction procedures. I imagine that will be 15 submitted on an ex parte basis?

16 MR. HARTMAN: Well, I mean, I can certainly file a 17 motion, but it seems to me, under the circumstances, just a 18 proposed form of order setting the option procedures should 19 suffice if Mr. Thomas has an opportunity to comment.

20 THE COURT: Well, yeah, you do need to file at least 21 a perfunctory motion for approval that -- I'm not going to sign 22 just an order that -- that's submitted as a -- I mean, if it's 23 a stipulated motion to approve, generally how I do it is even 24 on a stipulation, there's a stipulation requesting something 25 and then the order approving the stipulated request.

1 I don't know if in Reno you just file the stipulated 2 order, but generally I'll -- I like to see the docket event and 3 then the order tied to that docket event --

4 MR. HARTMAN: Certainly. I'll do that --

5 THE COURT: -- if you could.

6 MR. HARTMAN: I'll do that, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: You know, whether it's ex parte, what it
8 stipulated, I leave to the parties.

9 MR. HARTMAN: All right. We'll do it, Your Honor.
10 Thank you.

11 THE COURT: All right. And, Madam Trustee, you had a 12 comment. I just wanted to --

13 MS. COPPA-KNUDSON: Oh, I just thought that the order 14 that he was going to file was the proposed order, not even a 15 stipulated order, but just kind of the outline of what the 16 order would read, not just for Mr. Thomas's comment if he 17 didn't agree with what the proposed order of the auction would 18 be.

19 THE COURT: I believe that we can short-circuit a lot 20 of future discussion if there is an order setting the terms of 21 the hearing for auction, bids, deadlines, and such. Everybody 22 knows, everybody's on the same page, and then that gets sent 23 out to the matrix and whoever else you want to send that order 24 setting it out, and advertising and attempting to get as many 25 bids as possible.

1 MR. HARTMAN: I will do it, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Silver, any last 3 comments?

4 MR. SILVER: No, Your Honor. Wayne Silver.

5 THE COURT: All right. All right, then -- and,
6 Mr. Thomas, final word?

7 MR. THOMAS: No, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, then. And I'll 9 look forward to a proposed order and then seeing the notice go 10 out to the matrix, and let the parties attempt to provide it to 11 whoever they believe may want to bid. That order, though, I do 12 believe, should have very clearly in there when any opposition
13 to the proposed sale is due. While -- you don't have to repeat 14 what has been out there.

15 And, Mr. Thomas, to the extent that you have filed 16 your oppositions, you don't have to renew any of that. If 17 there's something that comes up between now and the hearing 18 which you believe is legally erroneous that has not been 19 addressed, then we can deal with that.

20 And, Mr. Hartman, going forward, you know, this is a 21 contested matter. There have been some discussion and forms 22 put on the last hearing, but I'm considering, if all this goes 23 out, we don't receive anything, we will go to the hearing on 24 the existing offer based upon the declarations that are -- have 25 been filed. And then we'll see who shows up. We'll deal with 1 those declarations.

2 Are you anticipating that any additional evidence 3 should be taken -- would be taken -- would need to be in the 4 form of a declaration prior?

5 MR. HARTMAN: On behalf of the trustee, Your Honor, 6 no.

7 THE COURT: Okay. But do you believe if a witness 8 shows up and is present and submitted for providing testimony 9 at that, does that witness get to testify or not?

10 MR. HARTMAN: I would say yes.

11 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So any witnesses in 12 support or opposition may be brought. Those that have 13 submitted a declaration need to be present if they want to 14 testify or have their declaration accepted as evidence.

15 MR. HARTMAN: May I ask for --

16 THE COURT: So you under --

17 MR. HARTMAN: -- clarification?

18 THE COURT: Go -- certainly.

19 MR. HARTMAN: So I -- my question is, would 20 Mr. Thomas have the opportunity to bring in a new declaration 21 from a new witness at this juncture.

22 THE COURT: Well, that's why I was asking if 23 additional witnesses would be able to appear. Because if you 24 say -- if they show up and appear, then yes, he would.

25 MR. HARTMAN: Well, I -- I'm sorry. I misunderstood.

1 I thought you meant from the declarations that he submitted in 2 advance of the last hearing.

3 THE COURT: Well, those people are known and at least 4 have provided declarations. So the question I'm getting 5 about -- to in an oblique manner is do you need an additional 6 deadline for further declarations in support or opposition of 7 the motion to sell?

8 MR. HARTMAN: Well, I guess, yes. I don't expect to 9 provide any new declarations, but if Mr. Thomas attempts to do 10 so, I need advance notice.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Thomas, are you going to -- 12 MR. THOMAS: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: -- call any additional witnesses?

14 MR. THOMAS: Yes. I would like to be able to call 15 whatever witnesses I need necessary to prove my case.

16 THE COURT: Well, in theory, those witnesses should 17 have been provided and detailed in the prior hearing.

18 MR. THOMAS: I didn't believe that the prior hearing 19 was going to go forward, Your Honor, because I thought it was 20 void on its face.

21 THE COURT: Well, that --

22 MR. THOMAS: It should have never --

23 THE COURT: That was a mistake. Yeah. I mean, 24 that -- that's why I urged you --

25 MR. THOMAS: So --

25

1 THE COURT: -- to think about getting counsel, 2 because that understanding is a mistake, and I'm trying to make 3 sure we have no similar misunderstandings going forward.

4 MR. THOMAS: Your Honor, I have asked this Court, and 5 I've filed documents with this Court -- I have a disability.
6 I'm dyslexic. And I've asked this Court to provide me with 7 counsel since it's taken my counsel away. And I've filed law 8 based on that in other cases that people with disabilities were 9 provided with counsel. And so I'm at a disadvantage, because I 10 do have a disability.

11 Mr. Hartman and Mr. Silver both know it. The -- 12 Judge Beesley knew it. And, you know, I'm doing the best I can 13 to make sure that, you know, I preserve my constitutional
14 rights. And, you know, I would like this Court to provide me 15 with counsel.

16 THE COURT: Well, I'm sure a lot of people would like 17 the Court to provide them with counsel. The Court has no 18 ability to provide counsel; we are not a criminal court.

19 MR. THOMAS: I know. But there are cases that say 20 that people with disabilities like dyslexia are provided with 21 counsel. And I submitted those cases in a judicial notice
22 motion that I filed with the Court on the house, and that's why 23 I wanted you to take judicial notice and make a ruling also on 24 the Portola house that was illegally taken from my parents.

25 THE COURT: If you want to make a motion to have the

1 Court appoint a counsel for you, you should make a specific 2 motion, not one for judicial notice. You need to make a motion
3 for Court to appoint counsel and get it filed.

4 MR. THOMAS: Okay. I will get -- I would like to --

5 THE COURT: We are all --

6 MR. THOMAS: -- have the time to -- Your Honor, I 7 would like to have the time to make that motion and to get that 8 filed. So can you --

9 THE COURT: Well, let me --

10 MR. THOMAS: -- please give me more time?

11 THE COURT: -- be clear. Let me be clear. I am
12 giving all the parties until July 19th to get -- to rehear 13 this. This gives you well over a month. This matter has been 14 going on since last November or December, right? So there is 15 plenty of time out there. And do what you have to, bring 16 whatever you want, but it -- all I'm trying to find out -- you
17 have additional witnesses that you want to bring to the hearing 18 to testify on July 19th. You want to bring whoever you may, 19 that's fine and dandy. But at some point you have to tell 20 people who those witnesses are so they can prepare, right?

21 MR. THOMAS: Yes.

22 THE COURT: And if you're going to do that, then the 23 form that has been adopted here which you are able to comply
24 with was to provide declarations. So --

25 MR. THOMAS: Yes, Your Honor. But I didn't fully get

1 to take the -- take -- cross-examine the witnesses to make 2 sure -- to know which witnesses I wanted to bring forward.
3 There's experts like Ronald Ringsrud, who, you know, did the 4 original appraisals, you know, who I would like to bring 5 forward as a witness -- as one, but there's many other 6 witnesses that I'd like to bring forward too.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. THOMAS: So I'd like to have the time to do that,
9 because I have to send subpoenas. And, you know, July 19th is 10 not much time, Your Honor. I -- I'm --

11 THE COURT: Well, and it -- it's the time you have --

12 MR. HARTMAN: Your --

13 THE COURT: -- unfortunately.

14 MR. HARTMAN: Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Hartman.

16 MR. HARTMAN: Your Honor, there's an order, and I
17 don't remember where in the docket it is, that gave Mr. Thomas 18 adequate time to issue subpoenas, to get all the documents he 19 wanted. That time came and went. That door is closed, as far 20 as I'm concerned. This is going to drag on beyond July 19th
21 now because Mr. Thomas will say, I haven't had an opportunity 22 to get court-appointed counsel. And I'm just afraid it's going 23 to go on and on and on. This is an --

24 MR. THOMAS: I will file --

25 MR. HARTMAN: This is an administratively insolvent

1 estate. And we have a $20,000 emerald we're trying to 2 liquidate, and it just gets worse and worse and worse.

3 The case was filed in 2014. Mr. Thomas has had five 4 years to come up with a buyer for this emerald, and he hasn't 5 done it.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 MR. THOMAS: I have -- I haven't had five years,
8 Your Honor. The trustee took the emerald over in the illegal
9 conversion when they converted me in two thousand -- I can't -- 10 I don't know the docket date, but I think it was in 2014. I'm 11 not --

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MR. THOMAS: -- sure on that, but the illegal
14 conversion where they took my attorney away and converted me
15 from Chapter 7 to 11.

16 THE COURT: Again, beyond --

17 MR. THOMAS: Or Chapter 11 to 7.

18 THE COURT: -- the scope of the hearing -- again, let 19 me just say that's beyond the scope of the hearing on setting 20 the motion to sell. So we're going to have the motion to 21 sell -- the hearing on July 19th at one o'clock. The question 22 is whether we do prior to that --

23 Mr. Hartman, if you're in -- if you're wanting to 24 know who the witnesses are, I mean, that -- that's -- what are 25 you wanting out of that? Are you wanting additional

1 declarations? Are you wanting final witness list?

2 MR. HARTMAN: No. No.

3 THE COURT: What exactly are you wanting?

4 MR. HARTMAN: No, Your Honor. I'm sorry if I wasn't 5 clear. The -- there were certain witnesses that should have 6 been at the hearing for Mr. Thomas, and the -- one wasn't, and 7 that's why Judge Beesley said, of course, if the witness who 8 signed the declaration isn't present to be cross-examined, you 9 can't introduce the declaration.

10 So I just want to make sure that there's not going to 11 be a new person or persons for this next hearing that we have 12 to anticipate, determine whether or not we need to conduct a 13 Rule 2004 exam, and so forth. So it's a new prospective 14 witness for Mr. Thomas that I'm addressing, not one of the 15 existing witnesses.

16 MR. THOMAS: Your Honor, there was other witnesses
17 that --

18 THE COURT: No. But, Mr. --

19 MR. THOMAS: The --

20 THE COURT: Mr. Thomas, hold on for a second. Let me 21 ask some questions.

22 So to understand, Mr. Hartman, it's not your position
23 that while Mr. Mulrow (phonetic) wasn't at the first hearing, 24 if he shows up at the second hearing, is it your position that 25 he does or does not get to testify?

1 MR. HARTMAN: I would say let him testify.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So we're in agreement, then.

3 Any of the witnesses that actually show up may 4 testify for the declarations that were already provided, so
5 that should be most of the witnesses

6 Now, for the new witnesses, you don't want anybody -- 7 you don't want to give an opportunity to provide any additional 8 testimony or witnesses. Is that your point?

9 MR. HARTMAN: That's correct.

10 THE COURT: All right. And --

11 MR. THOMAS: I object to that, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: -- Mr. Thomas?

13 MR. THOMAS: I object to that on the basis that 14 Mr. Silver has already cross-examined Ronald Ringsrud, and they 15 didn't want to let in any of that evidence of Ronald Ringsrud's 16 testimony, as he's an expert. And he's already taken his 17 deposition in the Kenmark case, and all that evidence should 18 come in. And if Mr. Ringsrud wants to testify, he should be 19 able to testify.

20 And there's also other documents that I would like to 21 bring in. Ken Trazini filed a (indiscernible) in Florida 22 claiming that the emerald was worth $500 million. And that 23 evidence has not been submitted to this case. And I don't want 24 to be precluded from putting in evidence that should be allowed 25 into this hearing.

1 THE COURT: All right. So here's what we're going to 2 do, then. We are going to require the parties to exchange 3 exhibits and file a final exhibit list by July 8th, also file a 4 final witness list by July 8th. I will require all witnesses
5 to appear in person for testimony.

6 MR. THOMAS: Your Honor, could I ask one request?

7 THE COURT: Sure.

8 MR. THOMAS: You are -- not knowing the circumstances 9 of what's going on, there's a -- I'm -- also filed my case in 10 the Oakland court, as you know, where these -- Mr. Hartman and 11 Mr. Silver and the judge are all defendants in this case. And 12 there's ongoing hearings in the other case too, which are on 13 the 28th.

14 And for somebody with a disability taking on all the 15 replies that I have to do, that's a very short time. And I'm 16 asking that -- if you could push it out at least one more
17 month. Give me until August 19th instead of until the -- July 18 19th, because I have a lot of documents that I still need to 19 get filed in the court for the Oakland hearing, a tremendous 20 amount of documents, reply briefs for Mr. Hartman trying to get 21 out of the case, saying that he has immunity. You know, I have 22 to file another amended complaint in that case, because we only 23 did a placeholder filing for our original lawsuit, so it has to 24 be amended.

25 And then there's the judicial notice motion that

1 needs to be filed in that case. And then all that has to be 2 ruled on and all that has to be done before June 28th, which is 3 going to consume all of my time in between now and June 28th.

4 MR. SILVER: Your Honor, this is Wayne Silver, 5 telephonically. And I'd like to make a comment about what 6 Mr. Thomas just said.

7 Your Honor, I'm a named defendant in that lawsuit.
8 It is pending in the District Court, Northern District of 9 California in Oakland. And as a matter of fact, Your Honor, 10 the judge in that hearing entered an order specifically stating 11 that nothing further was to be filed between now and the 12 hearing.

13 Mr. Thomas has totally misrepresented what is 14 happening in that case. And I will be happy to provide a copy 15 of that order to this Court.

16 MR. THOMAS: He did not say that I could not file a 17 judicial notice motion in that order, Mr. Silver. He did not.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

19 MR. THOMAS: And I need to file it --

20 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Thomas. I'd 21 like to hear from Mr. Hartman.

22 So the suggestion has been made to continue it to the 23 August calendar. Mr. Hartman, your response.

24 MR. HARTMAN: Well, Your Honor, I -- I'm reluctant to 25 do that, because sometime in August there will be another

1 reason for Mr. Thomas to ask that this be kicked down the road.

2 And although I hate to burden the Court with another 3 piece of information, Mr. Thomas also has a petition for 4 certiorari pending with the United States Supreme Court 5 regarding the matter he referred to in Santa Clara County. And 6 so that is out there as well. And he believes that -- I
7 think -- that if the Supreme Court were to grant cert, then a
8 year or two from now the court -- the Supreme Court might say 9 that the judgment obtained in Santa Clara County was 10 fraudulently obtained, and this whole chapter -- bankruptcy
11 case could go away.

12 I don't see it, and I don't know that we can hold up 13 the process in the trustee's obligations to allow all these 14 things to unfold according to Mr. Thomas's time frame.

15 MR. THOMAS: Your Honor, the case in Santa Clara, I 16 believe, will be turned over because the fraud that was 17 procured in Santa Clara. My attorney was told through the 18 State Bar the day before that he was not allowed to try the 19 case, and they settled it the next day --

20 THE COURT: You may well have --

21 MR. THOMAS: -- on the record --

22 THE COURT: -- an action against your attorney, 23 Mr. Thomas, but you are in bankruptcy. The bankruptcy has been 24 around for quite a period of time. I believe it was filed in 25 2014. The motion to sell has been on the docket since

1 November, I believe. It's gone through several hearings,
2 including an evidentiary hearing, so it is getting a second 3 bite at the apple.

4 Again, much of this is for naught if there is no
5 actual offer on the table. We need to know whether there's an 6 actual offer on the table. That's the very first thing we must 7 know. So I appreciate that. I am sympathetic. But this 8 matter is prepared. There is actually nothing that should 9 happen that is new, unless and until somebody comes in to bid 10 higher.

11 So this matter is ready to be heard. It needs to be 12 heard. I am sympathetic to your situation, but honestly, there 13 really isn't a whole lot that should need to be done. And so 14 the court's going to keep it on for July 19th. It gives you 40 15 days or more to prepare.

16 I understand that you may have additional matters
17 going on, but everybody has additional matters going on. So 18 the time has come to get this resolved. We will get it 19 resolved. And we'll --

20 MR. THOMAS: Your Honor, could you respectfully --

21 THE COURT: -- just see what we can --

22 MR. THOMAS: Could you respectfully give me until 23 August?

24 THE COURT: No. July 19th.

25 MR. HARTMAN: Your Honor, may I make a suggestion?

1 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Hartman.

2 MR. HARTMAN: As you know, there are extensive briefs
3 on file with respect to the motion. And it -- I don't want to 4 have the Court have to be burdened with additional motions that 5 repeat everything. So if -- unless somebody has something new 6 to inject into the process, I would suggest that each party's 7 papers refer to every docket entry that they would like to have 8 the Court consider, so that nothing's repeated.

9 THE COURT: Well, I appreciate that. I agree. But 10 really, again, there should be no additional -- we've had 11 briefing. We've had --

12 MR. HARTMAN: I under --

13 THE COURT: -- an opposition. You've opposed
14 actually that opposition as untimely. That matter was argued.
15 So there's really nothing on the legal side to do.

16 What we really need to do is see if anybody else is 17 willing to pay more than what the current bid was. As -- 18 Judge Beesley referred to it as the stalking-horse; that's 19 exactly what it is. And unless and until something happens, 20 there really shouldn't be anything other -- you know, to do in 21 preparation other than to bring the people that are going to 22 testify to the hearing.

23 And what I will do was -- is require a final witness
24 list and exhibits by July 8th, and that's all. I'm not going
25 to require declarations; people show up. This is a contested

1 matter. It is just a contested matter. It is not a trial.

2 So we will exchange exhibits so you know the 3 exhibits. You'll get a list of people that are going to 4 appear. And if they're on the list, they better appear. All 5 right? I don't want you -- I don't want people putting every 6 possible person in the world that might appear. You better
7 have a good faith basis for putting them on there, and I better
8 see them in the courtroom on July 19th at one o'clock.

9 MR. HARTMAN: So again, to be clear, there's really 10 no further briefing on legal issues, there's just the fact 11 issues and the witnesses.

12 THE COURT: Not unless something happens.

13 MR. HARTMAN: Right. Okay.

14 THE COURT: All right. And I don't discount that 15 something could happen. But, you know, you better have 16 something new to say if you file it.

17 So if Mr. Thomas wants to make a motion for the Court 18 to appoint counsel for reasons, that's new. Okay. Let -- 19 let's put that on the record, and we will deal with that. But 20 enough has been said on this, right?

21 And I -- that's why I led with -- I understand
22 there's a challenge to notice. I understand there's a 23 challenge to the actual sale itself and that it's not 24 generating enough money. And then there's a challenge as to 25 the expenses to be paid to the auctioneer. Those are the

1 matters that have been raised. Those are the matters that are 2 going forward. Ostensibly, the good faith of the purchaser is 3 at issue, and I'll expect testimony on that. But those are the 4 matters there.

5 So there's not anything that I'm aware of that needs
6 further briefing, unless something should happen.

7 MR. HARTMAN: Very well, Your Honor.

8 MR. THOMAS: And there was one more matter,
9 Your Honor, which was that they didn't use the proper process 10 for picking an auctioneer that was qualified to get the most 11 money for it, to -- you know, we had Overstock.com that was 12 going to do a worldwide tour of the emerald, and had mentioned 13 that they thought that they could get over 200 million for it, 14 you know, and they -- they've got 20,000 for it.

15 THE COURT: Well, that, I take, Mr. Thomas, as 16 falling into, you know, just another variation of they didn't 17 get enough money for it.

18 MR. THOMAS: Well, but -- because it wasn't promoted.
19 Nobody knew about it. The only people that knew about it was 20 Silver and Trazini. They were the only people notified about 21 the sale.

22 THE COURT: And that's what I'm telling you,
23 Mr. Thomas. Now you get to notify people that there'll be a 24 new sale at -- on July 19th, 2019, at one o'clock, if they meet 25 those requirements. And if this is worth however millions that

1 it is worth, then there should be plenty of people willing to 2 pay more than 20- or $25,000. That will be the proof in the 3 pudding.

4 MR. THOMAS: Your Honor, though, the --

5 THE COURT: And with that --

6 MR. THOMAS: It --

7 THE COURT: -- I think that --

8 MR. THOMAS: I won't get -- Your Honor, I'd like to 9 object on the basis that I have no right to -- since you have 10 it in the trustee's hands, to promote it. You know, it's the 11 trustee's job to promote it and get the money for it; it's not 12 mine. It's their job to promote it around the world and get 13 the best auctioneer.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. THOMAS: And that's not happening, and that's 16 what I'm objecting on. We had an auctioneer --

17 THE COURT: That --

18 MR. THOMAS: -- that was willing to do all that for 19 us.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So, Mr. Hartman, you'll prepare 21 the order on the terms and conditions of the auction in 22 anticipation of the notice. Court will prepare its own very 23 short order on the scheduling of this, including the deadline 24 to file exhibit lists and witness lists by July 8th and 25 exchange and mark exhibits for presentation by July 8th as

1 well.

2 The exhibits that were admitted into evidence 3 previously will be deemed -- will continue over as evidence in 4 the continued hearing. All right.

5 Thank you very much. You've given me much to think 6 about. I look forward to moving this along promptly. But that 7 will end the hearing for today. And we'll be adjourned.
8 Parties on the phone can hang up.

9 MR. THOMAS: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 MR. SILVER: Thank you.

11 MR. HARTMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 MR. SILVER: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Madam Clerk, I'll go ahead and hang up as 15 well.
